Dedication

We, the class of nineteen-hundred and fifty-nine, respectfully dedicate this "Delphi" to Mrs. Connie Rosselit. Connie is a graduate of Delphos Jefferson High School. On February 6, 1950, she began working in the office. Since that day in February the bright, smiling face of Connie Rosselit has greeted many students as they came to school. She has worked untiringly in the office to keep things running smoothly at Delphos Jefferson. We, the class of fifty-nine, believe that the dedication of this "Delphi" has been appropriately made to Connie Rosselit, the friend of every student at D. H. S.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It is the evening of Commencement, May 25, 1959. As I take a last minute look around, I see all the members of our class lined up for the Processional. On every face there is a different expression. Some reflect relief at having reached this, the final goal of their high school career. Others reflect the sadness they are feeling. Many of my classmates are remembering all the fun and hard work of the last four years.

Our class, though small in number, has always been large in spirit. The girls have participated in Y-Teens, G.A.A., and Girls Glee, the boys in football, basketball, baseball, and D-Club. Together they have been active in choir, band, ensembles, and Science Club, and have attended such memorable events as the Y-Teen Dances, the Athletic Banquets, the Proms, the music festival and contests, and many others. They also worked together in putting on the junior and senior class plays and editing the school paper when they were juniors, and the year-book when they were seniors.

Besides being so social-minded, our class was well-represented scholastically. Eight of our classmates were members of the National Honor Society.

Our class has shared many happy times and, of course, a few bad ones. Now, as the first strains of the Processional are heard, and we begin to move toward the future, we can only hope that all of us will keep the wonderful memories of our high school days with us throughout our lives.

JUNIOR CLASS

We shall always remember our Junior year because of the sometimes grueling but always interesting task of publishing the "Re-Echo", all the fun involved in producing "Act Your Age", wearing our new class rings, and giving the prom for the Seniors.

Freshmen's fun has just begun.

High School at last! Finally we became a part of GAA, T-Teens, Science Club, and high school sports! Many of us were plunged into the mysteries of Latin and algebra. As band and football members, we were permitted to attend a football game at Ohio State. The girls were properly humiliated in GAA. Initiation and our great thrill came stepping "formally" to the Y-Teen Dance.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY -

The highest honor you can attain in school.

The National Honor Society represents students of our high school who have been recognized in outstanding scholarship, leadership, character, and service which are the four cardinal principles of the society.

To recognize their students and to encourage all students to try to attain this honor is the society's aim. The society was formed, and it is one of the many branches extending throughout the United States.

The keystone supporting a flaming torch with the symbols S.L.C.S., representing its standards is the emblem of the society.

Each year the chosen students are admitted to the organization in an impressive ceremony held before the student body and friends.

A Class for the musically inclined.

The band once again completed another successful year of marching. At each game the band gave an entertaining performance, which always added an interesting feature to football fans. For the annual band trip the members of the band traveled to Ohio State for a football game.

After the football season the band slowed its tempo and became a concert band.

In March the band traveled to Shawnee where they participated in the District Contest. The required number was "Ballet Song", and the selected number was "Overture Belgique".

The annual Spring Concert held by the band was in May, and it was very well done in every respect.

This choir excels in quantity as well as quality . .

Mrs. Oetzel returned to lead the A Capella Choir through a most rewarding year. Highlighting this year was the Christmas Vesper program with the choir wearing new robes.

The choir was busy throughout the year with such projects as contests, Spring Concert, church visitations, and several school assemblies.

Much credit should be given to Mrs. Ann Oetzel, our director, who by means of great patience and hard work, made this year a successful one.

This Junior play could be called a morale play.

Acting your own age is better than trying to change it. At least that is what two 14-year old girls, Angie and Jerry, agree upon after going through a series of amusing complications. When the girls pretend to be much older in their letters to two lonesome sailors, the results are hilarious as they try to hide their true ages when the sailors really see them in a surprise visit.

JUMPIN' JUPITER

On May 2 the Senior class presented a three-act comedy entitled "Jumpin' Jupiter". It was one of the most enjoyable productions ever presented here.

The plot centered around three girls who shared a New York apartment and were trying to crash Broadway. The rent bill was facing them and the landlady was on the war path.

One of the girls found a box in a waste-can that contained $50,000. It turned out to be the ransom money for a kidnapped heiress, and the girls got involved with the kidnapers and the police.

F. F. A.

"I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds."

This is the opening paragraph of the Future Farmers of America, and it expresses the purpose of the organization. This organization is the largest boy-owned and boy-operated of its kind in the world.

It teaches the boys leadership, respect, and kindness in its doctrines. Not only do the boys learn how to manage a farm efficiently, but they also learn bargaining procedures, care and use of farm machinery, and essential factors of life on the farm.

The members of the F.F.A. can be very proud of their many achievements. Among them are their many awards for public speaking, the trip for some members who go to the F.F.A. Convention in October, and the annual participation in the Parliamentary Procedure contest.

This organization is for the more scientific-minded.

The Science Club has spent a very worthwhile year. The club has taken a field trip to Harter and Son's Funeral Home, planned a photography contest, and held regular meetings during the year.

The officers this year are: Tom Beerman, President; Bob Whittington, Vice President; Donna Buys, Secretary; Linda Knerr, Treasurer; and Vernon Truesdale, Sergeant-at-Arms. The adviser is Mrs. Weiging.

Y-TEENS

The Y-Teens started the 1958-1959 year with the traditional candlelight service, and induction for the new members.

Under the guidance of the new advisor, Mrs. Terry, the girls enjoyed many interesting meetings and projects. These projects included a drive for used clothing for underprivileged children in our Southern states; a sponsoring of a needy family at Christmas; the annual dance, the "Christmas Ball"; and the sale of greeting cards and stationary.

Throughout the year the Y-Teen members gained many rich experiences which they will remember always.

G.A.A. members excel in many sports.

G.A.A.

Who said that only boys play in sports to get their letters? Members of the Girls Athletic Association excel in volleyball, baseball, basketball, and bowling. By playing at noon hour they receive one point for each game they play. Other ways of getting points are: by attending meetings regularly, selling pop-corn at basketball games, and serving on committees.

The most important event of the year is the GAA Athletic Banquet. This banquet is given to honor all boys participating in sports at Jefferson.

Deadline and accuracy are words thought of by busy reporters as they roam the halls seeking news for the school newspaper, the Re-Echo. This newspaper is of mineograph form and is put out every year by the Junior Class. The editors start their job early as they are sent to Ohio University in the summer to learn how to set up and edit a newspaper.

However, the reporters and editors are not the only busy ones, as the typists, artists, and production staff work very hard to make every issue of the newspaper successful.

Get those articles in by the deadline!

Always cheering through thick and thin.

These are our heroes.

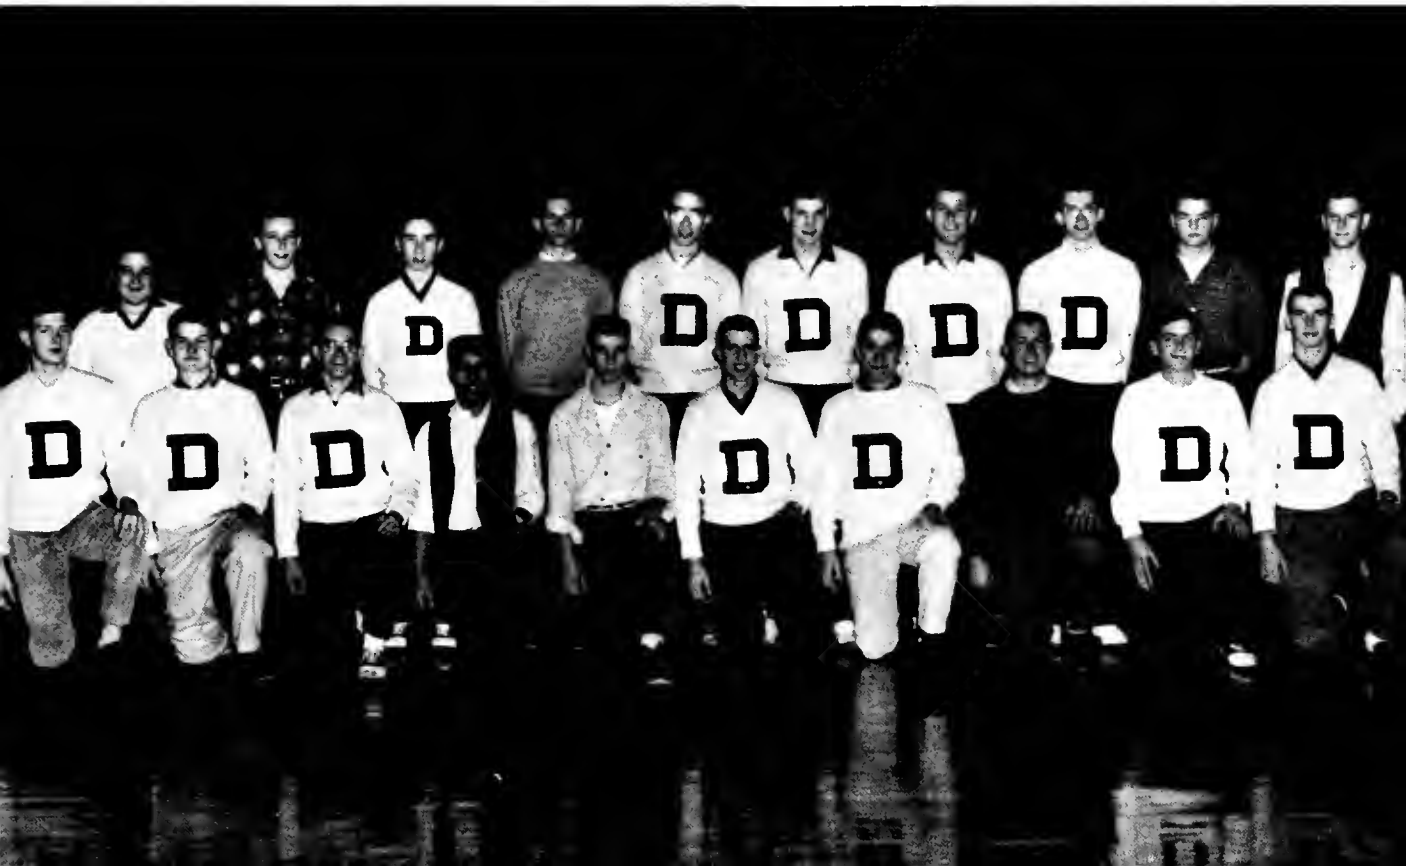

These are the boys who worked very hard in the sports activities of the school. They have earned their "D", either in football, basketball, baseball, or as a manager in one of these sports.

Some of the activities of the D-club this year were selling pop at basketball games and the P.T.A. Carnival, selling programs at the football and basketball games, and sponsoring several record hops.

A charming Queen and Court.

On October 17, Carolyn Loetz reigned as Homecoming Queen. Her two charming princesses were Susan Kissell and Karen Kalinsek. Following the game a dance was held in the court's honor, and Football Captain Larry Barnes presented the crown to the queen.

Susan Kissell, Queen Carolyn Loetz, Karen Kalinsek.

From fourteen girls seeking the nomination, Carolyn Loetz, a blond, blue-eyed Senior, was chosen as Jefferson's Peony Festival representative. She, along with area representatives, was selected because of her charm, personality, beauty, and poise. These factors entered into the choosing of the 1959 Peony Queen. Carolyn represented us very well, and the students felt very proud of her.
